COVID-19 NOTICE

At Raipher, P.C., it remains our duty to serve our clients. We will continue to do this so and have taken measures to ensure the health and safety of our clients and employees.

Our Offices:

We remain open and ready to serve you!

We are lucky to have great staff that takes pride in keeping our offices clean. Additional measures are being taken to keep common areas and meeting places clean and sanitized throughout each day. Do not hesitate to request that a conference room be cleaned before any meeting that you attend. We will be happy to accommodate your request.

Our Technology:

We are more than happy to offer alternatives to in person meetings. While this may not be available in all matters, do not hesitate to contact the office to see if your meeting can be conducted by phone, video conference, etc.

In the event the offices are temporarily closed, we have the ability to continue to work on your matter and will do our best to limit any potential delays or continuances. If your matter is in litigation, we will continue to advise you regarding the status of same as the Administrative Office the Trial Court, and some courts individually, have been implementing various protective measures that may limit or postpone court appearances.

Our Commitment to You:

While we politely request that handshakes or other physical contact with our employees not take place at this time, we remain committed to representing our clients each and every day, whether it be in the office, at the courthouse or from a remote location.

Our Commitment to Health and Safety:

We will continue to monitor updates regarding COVID-19 as they become available from state and local authorities and the CDC. If you are not feeling well please let us know and we will work with you to reschedule any appointments, court dates, etc. If you have been exposed to someone who has contracted the virus, please alert us as soon as possible so that we can determine if your interactions with our office require additional action to ensure the health and safety of our employees and all of our clients.

Please be sure to contact us with any questions or concerns.

We look forward to continue serving you.
